Stock & Option Solutions Announces an Aspirations Fling with the San Francisco NASPP Chapter

The details are being ironed out for the Aspirations Fling with the SF NASPP Chapter that will give attendees a good look into what changes are coming with moving from a private company to a public company

Campbell, California, June 6th, 2016 - Stock & Option Solutions (SOS), a leading provider of stock plan administration, management and consulting services, today announced an Aspirations Fling, a luncheon meeting geared towards private companies with equity compensation. The meeting, held at Charles Schwab in San Francisco, California, will include lunch, networking and a stellar topic dedicated to detailing what changes to expect during each stage of preparation of an IPO.

This Aspirations Fling with the San Francisco NASPP Chapter will bring together executives and stock plan staff from finance, accounting, HR, legal, and executive compensation on July 12, 2016 in San Francisco, California.

“You do not want to miss this presentation if you are anticipating an IPO in the future. Our presentation will cover many areas to consider before, during, and after your IPO from selecting a broker to taxation of post-IPO transactions. Make sure to bring your questions to the presentation!” said one of the scheduled presenters, Carol Rose-Guerin of SOS.
